

KME 2026 New England Regional Convention

Hosted by the New York Omicron Chapter

St. Joseph's University, Long Island Campus (Patchogue, NY)

Convention Details

- Dates: Friday, April 10 – Saturday, April 11, 2026
 - Host Chapter: New York Omicron
 - Location: St. Joseph's University, Long Island Campus
 - Convention Organizers: Dr. Donna Marie Pirich and Dr. Elana Reiser
-

Keynote Speaker

- Speaker: Dr. Tom Mainiero
 - Title: Math: Wrongness, Weirdness, and ... Wut
-

Call for Student Presentations

We invite all undergraduate and graduate KME members to present their work!

- Presentation Submission Deadline: Sunday, February 1, 2026
- Time Limit: Presentations should be no longer than 20 minutes in length.
- Abstract Guidelines: Abstracts must be no more than 500 words, cover topics within the scope of understanding of undergraduates who have completed differential and integral calculus, and require a cover letter from the student's advisor.
- Full Submission Guidelines: Guidelines for Submitting Abstracts for the 2026 KME New England Regional Convention

○

(Scan to view full submission guidelines)

Contact

For questions please email Dr. Donna Marie Pirich, KME New England Regional Director and Faculty Sponsor, New York Omicron Chapter: dpirich@sjny.edu